

EMORY UNIVERSITY STUDENT HEALTH SERVICES

ADHD PSYCHOLOGY TESTING LIST

Psychologists (PhD) available to test or provide behavioral treatments to Emory Students for ADHD/ADD:

Check with your insurance company to see if they cover some of the cost of testing. The average cost is approximately $1500. For those with the Emory/Aetna Student Health Insurance, this plan applies coverage for ADHD testing if you see a network provider. For those with other insurance, please check with your provider for benefit coverage.
