

Alcohol and Other Drug Prevention Resources Off-Campus

Online Resources

www.collegedrinkingprevention.gov – Find the latest research, info on alcohol's effects on the brain and body, fact sheets, resources for peer leaders, parents, and more.

www.niaaa.nih.gov – National Institute on Alcohol Abuse and Alcoholism

<http://www.al-anon.alateen.org> – For families and friends of alcoholics

In the Community

Alcoholics Anonymous, Central Office of Atlanta, Georgia

<http://www.atlantaaa.org> or (404) 525-3178

Call any time to reach volunteers for help or info. There are over 1,100 A.A. meetings each week in Atlanta.

Alcoholics Anonymous, Everybody's AA Group

Everybody's AA Group meets at the Emory Presbyterian Church, 1886 North Decatur Rd. on Mondays and Fridays from 8-9 pm, and are closed, non-smoking, discussion meetings. Note: This meeting is a closed discussion meeting for individuals seeking help. If you are looking for an open meeting to observe, call 404-525-3178.

Metro Atlanta Al-Anon/Alateen

<http://www.alanonatl.com/>

Al-Anon Family Groups are for friends and families of problem drinkers.

Georgia Regional Service Committee of Narcotics Anonymous

<http://www.grscna.com/> or (877) 413-3073 or (770) 379-0208

Provides meeting schedules in the area and links to other recovery websites.

CoAnon (Cocaine): Anonymous Helpline: (404) 255-7787

Treatment

DeKalb Addiction Center – Call (404) 892-4646 for DeKalb County Residents,

Talbott Recovery Campus (770) 994-0185 – Includes young adult program

Ridgeview Institute (770) 434-4567—For Assessments dial extension 3200

Foundations Recovery Network (770) 594-3060 – Intensive outpatient program

Solutions Counseling Services (678) 624-0930 ext. 24 – Robert Margolis, PhD, Director

Private Practice Offices

Lani Walsh, LPC, MAC (678) 427-8543 – Within walking distance of Emory, located on N. Decatur Road – Provides individual and group counseling

David Gore, PhD (404) 237-4300 – Located on E. Shadowlawn Dr. (in Buckhead area)

The list above is just a sample of available community resources. Often insurance plans will list specific providers. Treatment centers and counselors themselves can help individuals sort out which choices would be most appropriate for them; don't be afraid to call and ask!

EMERGENCY INFO:

Emory First Responder Unit and Emory Police Department – 911 or 404-727-6111

Call for immediate assistance with medical or behavioral crises, alcohol poisoning, suicide threats, etc. If you are concerned that a friend may have been slipped something in a drink or have alcohol poisoning, DON'T WAIT – CALL FOR HELP!

Emory University Hospital Emergency Room (Clifton Road) – 404-712-7100

Alcohol & Other Drug Prevention Resources at Emory

Office of Health Promotion: Alcohol & other substance abuse prevention

<http://studenthealth.emory.edu/hp/>

We have a full-time alcohol and substance abuse prevention counselor on staff. You can make an appointment with him for free, confidential screening interviews (not diagnostic assessments), ongoing counseling when appropriate, and referrals for other services and long term addiction treatment on- and off-campus. You can also discuss concerns about problem drinking and using behaviors of a friend or family member.

Willie Bannister, LPC, Alcohol and Other Substance Abuse Prevention Counselor

Phone: (404) 727-0395; Email: wbannis@emory.edu

Psychiatric Services

http://studenthealth.emory.edu/hs/hs_services_psych.php

Appointments at https://www.shspnc.emory.edu/login_directory.aspx or call 404-727-7551.

Psychiatrists Services are free and confidential for students. Services are also available for spouses/domestic partners enrolled in the Aetna Student Health Insurance plan. Services include diagnostic evaluations, crisis management, medication evaluations, and long-term management of psychiatric medications. We also offer referrals/recommendations for Atlanta area-based mental health providers for students seeking services off-campus.

CAPS (Counseling and Psychological Services)

<http://studenthealth.emory.edu/cs/>

(404) 727-7450 or come to the Counseling Center between 8:30 a.m. and 5:00 p.m.

Free and confidential services that include assessments, short-term therapy and referrals.

Emory HelpLine:

http://studenthealth.emory.edu/cs/cs_health_info_student_involvement.php

404.727.HELP (4357), open 7 nights a week; 9 p.m. to 12 a.m. Free and Confidential

A telephone counseling and referral service providing anonymous peer counseling and confidential support to members of the Emory Community.

SA, RA, RHD, or House Director

Residence Life staff members are prepared to help you find resources to assist you in addressing concerns about alcohol or other drug use – yours or that of someone else you care about.

AA Meetings near Campus

Everybody's AA Group meets at the Emory Presbyterian Church, 1886 North Decatur Rd. on Mondays and Fridays from 8-9 pm, and are closed, non smoking, discussion meetings.

Note: This meeting is a closed discussion meeting for individuals seeking help. If you are looking for an open meeting to observe, call 404-525-3178.

Office of Student Conduct

http://conduct.emory.edu/policies/medical_amnesty/ – Emory's Medical Amnesty Policy

EMERGENCY INFO:

Emory First Responder Unit and Emory Police Department – 911 or 404-727-6111

Call for immediate assistance with medical or behavioral crises, alcohol poisoning, suicide threats, etc. If you are concerned that a friend may have been slipped something in a drink or have alcohol poisoning, DON'T WAIT – CALL FOR HELP!

Emory University Hospital Emergency Room (Clifton Road) – 404-712-7100