Emory University Student Health and Counseling Services is looking for undergraduate, graduate and professional students who are caring, creative, and committed to promoting a healthy campus culture. Members of the Student Health Advisory Committee (SHAC) have input on policy and programs.

We currently meet with leaders from Student Health and Counseling Services once or twice a semester. It is an opportunity to work with students and staff representing a broad spectrum of disciplines. The dates this semester will be Thursday October 1st from 12:30 until 1:30 and Thursday November 5th from 12:30 until 1:30. Lunch will be provided.

Possible new directions could include sponsoring a campus-wide health promotion event, or making use of existing events to publicize the many services available to students.

Please tell us why you would like to become a member of SHAC and what qualities you bring to the committee.

Three horizontal lines for writing a response to the previous question.

Please contact Lex Gilbert for more information or to submit your application. Applications due by September 16, 2009.
