The Counseling Center maintains strict rules of confidentiality. With few exceptions (such as legal court orders or cases where there is an imminent danger to self or others), information shared between client and counselor can remain confidential. The purpose of the Counseling Center’s Psychologist Training Program is fully accredited by the Accreditation Association for Ambulatory Health Care. Emory University Student Health and Counseling Services is very proud to be fully accredited by the American Association for Health, Education, and Preparedness (AAHEP) in whatever capacity, and promotes an environment that is a prohibited consideration under Title VI, Title IX, section 504 of the Rehabilitation Act, and Section 1981 of the U.S. Code. Emory University does not discriminate with respect to employment or admission on the basis of race, sex, color, religion, national origin, age, disability, sex, sexual orientation, veteran status, or any factor that is a prohibited consideration under federal, state, or local law. Emory University Student Health and Counseling Services is part of the Division of Campus Life and affiliated with Emory University Hospital. Emory University Medical Center. Counseling Services staff members are board-certified professionals. Each is a member of the American Psychological Association (APA) and additional specialty organizations, and maintains an active schedule of continuing education and training to ensure they are well versed in the latest developments in their field. If you have a disability and need access to a readable document, please call 404-727-7450 to schedule an initial evaluation with a counselor.

Eagles at East State

Management Services

The counseling center provides immediately available by appointment counseling through the Student Counseling Center. The Student Counseling Center’s motto is offers a comfortable space for your free-of-charge consultation and feedback. Each appointment focuses on a specific issue or concern that you may have. Additional topics can be covered at your request at the next appointment. Please call 404.727.7450 to schedule an initial evaluation with a counselor.

Counseling and Outreach Services

Counseling Services staff members who provide education, peer support, and academic services. These include the Student Counseling Center’s online support services, peer counseling and family/health education programs, and other outreach programs. The Student Counseling Center’s Psychologist Training Program is fully accredited by the Accreditation Association for Ambulatory Health Care. Emory University Student Health and Counseling Services is very proud to be fully accredited by the American Association for Health, Education, and Preparedness (AAHEP) in whatever capacity, and promotes an environment that is a prohibited consideration under Title VI, Title IX, section 504 of the Rehabilitation Act, and Section 1981 of the U.S. Code. Emory University does not discriminate with respect to employment or admission on the basis of race, sex, color, religion, national origin, age, disability, sex, sexual orientation, veteran status, or any factor that is a prohibited consideration under federal, state, or local law. Emory University Student Health and Counseling Services is part of the Division of Campus Life and affiliated with Emory University Hospital. Emory University Medical Center. Counseling Services staff members are board-certified professionals. Each is a member of the American Psychological Association (APA) and additional specialty organizations, and maintains an active schedule of continuing education and training to ensure they are well versed in the latest developments in their field. If you have a disability and need access to a readable document, please call 404-727-7450 to schedule an initial evaluation with a counselor.

HOURS OF OPERATION

St u d e n t  H e a l t h  a n d  C o n s u l t i n g  S e r v i c e s

Hours during Fall and Spring Semesters: 8:30 a.m. – 5:00 p.m. Monday through Friday. Counseling Center is open on call in case of emergency. Call 404.727.7551 for an appointment.

Hours during Summer Sessions and Winter and Spring Breaks: Monday through Friday, 8:30 a.m. – 5:00 p.m. The Student Health Services on-site nurse is available Monday through Friday, 8:00 a.m. – 5:00 p.m. at 1525 Clifton Road Building. Call 404.727.7551 for an appointment.

For more in-depth information about our services and programs, please visit: www.studenthealth.emory.edu
Emory University Student Health Services (EUSHS) offers a wide variety of comprehensive, clinical services designed to meet the needs of Emory students. Emory University students are eligible for health care at EUSHS. Emory sponsors qualified domestic partners and unmarried children over eighteen years of age who may be an appointment for care for their service basin.

Avoid scheduling an appointment, students should telephone call 404.727.5751 or (for an appointment) online through MyEmory Student Health Services. To provide high-quality care, patients should do not cancel requests within the scheduled appointment.

Hospitalizations
Hospitalizations are usually arranged at Emory University Hospital or other facilities within the Emory Network. EUSHS physician provides care at the hospital attending physicians. The cost of hospitalization is the responsibility of the patient. There are some careworthy, important procedure

Prescriptions
A limited number of medications are available in prepackaged containers from EUSHS on a fee-for-service basis. Local pharmacies also are an option.

Immune Health Insurance Requirement
Every Student, Every Year
Required Immunizations are administered in the student’s residence hall for Emory University students who have asked for a fee of $75 per student. Please refer to the EUSHS Immunization Form for the list of required Immunizations.

Your Patient Portal
Your Patient Portal is EUSHS’s twenty-four-hour Internet communication tool for scheduling appointments and reviewing appointment history. It is available 24/7.

Your Patient Portal
Your Patient Portal is EUSHS’s twenty-four-hour Internet communication tool for scheduling appointments and reviewing appointment history. It is available 24/7.

Further Opportunities for Student Engagement
Beyond participating in our programs and services, students are encouraged to participate in departmental and national programs and events.

Student Health Advisory Committee (SHAC)
Office of Health and Wellness
Office of Health Promotion
The Office of Health Promotion contributes to student success in the classroom and the community by providing students with the knowledge, skills, and resources needed to promote health and well-being. Through strategies that are student-focused, evidence-based, and engaging, we challenge students to be the best versions of themselves.

Health Education
Health Education is a student-focused, evidence-based, and engaging, we challenge students to be the best versions of themselves.

Health Education
Health Education is a student-focused, evidence-based, and engaging, we challenge students to be the best versions of themselves.

Health Education
Health Education is a student-focused, evidence-based, and engaging, we challenge students to be the best versions of themselves.