

Emory University Student Health and Counseling Services
1525 Clifton Road, Atlanta, Georgia 30322
404.727.7551 www.studenthealth.emory.edu

Rule 360-27-.02 Declaration of Patients' Rights

The patient has the right to file a grievance with the Composite State Board of Medical Examiners, concerning the physician, staff, office and treatment received. The patient should either call the board with such a complaint or send a written complaint to the board. The patient should be able to provide the physician or practice name, the address and the specific nature of the complaint. Complaints may be reported to the Board at the following address or telephone number: Composite Board of State Medical Examiners *Attention: Complaints Unit * No. 2 Peachtree Street, N.W. 36th Floor * Atlanta, GA 30303 * (404) 656-3913

Posted May 8, 2008